

D.S.F.S. hosts N.I.M.S. Training for DELDOT

Simulated disasters again struck Chestnut Grove. On March 29th the Fire School hosted National Incident Management System Training for DELDOT.

This was a multi-agency training with about 25 students in attendance. The Chestnut Grove Tabletop was used as the scene of the incidents, with other areas of the Fire School being used for breakout areas.

Pictured: Students evaluate incidents that have taken place in Chestnut Grove.